Technical skills

Language	Experience	Competence
Java	Started learning Java in 2013 when I started studying at Lund University. It is the code language we've used the most in our education and we've used it in several courses. I've also developed multiple applications in Android Studio where I coded in Java.	High
SQL	Learned SQL when reading an introduction to databases course at LTH, Lund. Read an advanced course in database systems during my exchange semester in Sydney where I developed my SQL skills. Have also used SQL when developing Android applications and web sites.	Medium
JavaScript	Started learning JavaScript the fall of 2016 when I studied web development courses during my exchange semester at University of Sydney. I worked in a group where my main focus was front end development and I mainly used JavaScript on the server side.	Low
HTML	Learned small basics of HTML several years ago and developed my skills during my exchange semester in Sydney when my main responsibility was the front end in our web development courses. Used HTML with Bootstrap a lot.	High
CSS	Learned CSS when I started learning HTML. I've mainly used Bootstrap but I also write my own CSS files.	Medium
